An insurer that cancels a property insurance policy on property secured by a mortgage due to failure of the lender to timely pay the premium when due shall reinstate the policy as required by section 501.137, Florida Statutes.

c. The following provisions apply:

- (1) If you have not paid the premium, we may cancel at any time by letting you know at least 10 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
- (2) If this policy has been in effect for 90 days or less, we may cancel for any reason, except we may not cancel:
 - (a) On the basis of property insurance claims that are the result of an Act of God, unless we can demonstrate, by claims frequency or otherwise, that the "insured" has failed to take action reasonably necessary as requested by us to prevent recurrence of damage to the insured property; or
 - (b) On the basis of a single claim on a property insurance policy that is the result of water damage unless we can demonstrate that the "insured" has failed to take action reasonably requested by us to prevent a future similar occurrence of damage to the "insured property".

- (c) Solely on the basis of the age of the structure.
- (d) On the basis of the lawful use, possession, or ownership of a firearm or ammunition by an “insured” or household member of an “insured”.

We will let you know of our action at least 20 days before the date cancellation takes effect. However, we may cancel immediately if there has been a material misstatement or misrepresentation or failure to comply with underwriting requirements.

- (3) If this policy has been in effect for more than 90 days, we may cancel:
 - (a) If there has been a material misstatement;
 - (b) If the risk has changed substantially since the policy was issued;
 - (c) In the event of failure to comply, within 90 days after the effective date of coverage, with the underwriting requirements established by us before the effective date of coverage;
 - (d) If the cancellation is for all insureds under policies of this type for a given class of insureds;
 - (e) On the basis of property insurance claims that are the result of an Act of God, if we can demonstrate by claims frequency or otherwise, that the “insured” has failed to take action reasonably necessary as requested by us to prevent recurrence of damage to the insured property; or
 - (f) On the basis of a single claim on a property insurance policy that is the result of water damage if we can demonstrate that the “insured” has failed to take action reasonably requested by us to prevent a future similar occurrence of damage to the “insured property”.

When the policy has been in effect for more than 90 days, we may not cancel on the basis of credit information available in public records.

When the policy has been in effect for more than 90 days, we may not cancel on the basis of the lawful use, possession, or ownership of a firearm or ammunition by an “insured” or household member of an “insured”.

When the policy has been in effect for more than 90 days, cancellation can be done by letting you know at least 120 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation.

- (4) Notwithstanding any of the provisions above, we may cancel this policy by giving you at least 45 days’ notice if the Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) finds that the early cancellation of some or all of our policies is necessary to protect the best interests of the public or our policyholders and the OIR approves our plan for early cancellation of some or all of our policies. The OIR may base such finding upon the financial condition of the insurer, lack of adequate reinsurance coverage for hurricane risk, or other relevant factors.
- (5) If there has been a declaration of an emergency and the filing of an order by the Commissioner of Insurance Regulation, we may not cancel your policy if it has been damaged by a hurricane or had a wind loss that is subject to the declaration of emergency for a period of 90 days after the dwelling or residential property has been repaired. A structure is deemed to be repaired when substantially completed and restored to the extent that it is insurable by another authorized insurer that is writing policies in the state of Florida. However, we may cancel a policy prior to the repair of the dwelling or residential property:
 - (a) Upon 10 days’ written notice for non-payment of premium; or
 - (b) Upon 45 days’ notice:
 - (i) For a material misstatement or fraud related to the claim;

(ii) If we determine that the “insured” has unreasonably caused a delay in the repair of the dwelling; or

(iii) If we have paid policy limits.

If a cancellation of your policy is to take effect during the duration of a hurricane, the effective date of such cancellation is extended until the end of the duration of the hurricane. We may collect premium at the prior rates or the rates then in effect for the period of time for which coverage is extended. This paragraph does not apply if you have obtained a replacement policy that is in effect at the time of the hurricane.

d. If we fail to provide notice as required above, other than the 10 day notice, your coverage shall remain in effect until the effective date of replacement coverage or until the expiration of a period of days after the notice is given equal to the required notice period, whichever comes first.

6. Nonrenewal is deleted and replaced by the following:

6. Nonrenewal.

a. We may elect not to renew this policy. We may do so by delivering or mailing to you at the mailing address shown in the Declarations, written notice, together with the specific reasons for nonrenewal, at least 120 days before the effective date of the nonrenewal. Proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

(1) If a state of emergency has been declared and an emergency order has been filed by the Commissioner of Insurance Regulation, we may not non-renew a personal residential property insurance policy covering a dwelling or “residence premises” which has been damaged as a result of a hurricane or wind loss that is the subject of the declaration of emergency for a period of 90 days after the dwelling or “residence premises” has been repaired. A structure is deemed to be repaired when substantially completed and restored to the extent that it is insurable by another authorized insurer that is writing policies in this state.

(a) However, we may non-renew such a policy prior to the repair of the dwelling or “residence premises”:

(i) Upon 10 days’ notice for nonpayment of premium; or

(ii) Upon 45 days’ notice:

a. for a material misstatement or fraud related to a claim;

b. if we determine that you have unreasonably caused a delay in the repair of the dwelling; or

c. if we have paid policy limits.

(b) If we elect to non-renew a policy covering a property that has been damaged, we shall provide at least 90 days’ notice to you that we intend to non-renew the policy 90 days after the dwelling or residential property has been repaired. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent us from non-renewing the policy 90 days after the repairs are complete for the same reasons we would otherwise have non-renewed the policy but for the limitations of subparagraph 6. a. (1).

(2) If the nonrenewal of your policy is to take effect during the duration of a hurricane, the effective date of the nonrenewal is extended until the end of the duration of such hurricane. We may collect premium at the prior rates or the rates then in effect for the period of time for which coverage is extended. Paragraph 6. a. (1) does not apply if you have obtained replacement coverage for your property and the replacement coverage is in effect for a claim occurring during the duration of the hurricane.

b. If we elect to not renew your policy and the conditions in 6. a. (1) do not exist, we will not non-renew this policy:

(1) On the basis of property insurance claims that are the result of an Act of God, unless we can demonstrate, by claims frequency or otherwise, that you have failed to take action reasonably necessary as requested by us to prevent recurrence of damage to the insured property; or

- (2) On the basis of filing of claims for sinkhole damage, regardless of whether the policy has been subject of a sinkhole claim, or on the basis of the risk associated with the occurrence of such a claim. However, we may elect not to renew this policy if:
 - (a) The total of such property claim payments for this policy equal or exceed the current policy limits of coverage for property damage to the covered building; or
 - (b) You have failed to repair the structure in accordance with the recommendations of the professional engineer retained by us upon which any loss payment or policy proceeds were based.
- (3) Solely on the basis of a single claim on a property insurance policy that is the result of water damage unless we can demonstrate that you have failed to take action reasonably requested by us to prevent a future similar occurrence of damage to the “insured” property.
- (4) Solely on the basis of the age of the structure.
- (5) On the basis of the lawful use, possession or ownership of a firearm or ammunition by an “insured” or household member of an “insured”.
- (6) On the basis of credit information available in public records.

c. We may non-renew a property insurance policy after giving you at least 45 days’ notice if the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation finds that the early non-renewal of some or all of our policies is necessary to protect the best interests of the public or policyholders and the Office of Insurance Regulation approves our plan for early non-renewal of some or all of our policies due to our financial condition, lack of adequate reinsurance coverage for hurricane risk, or other relevant factors.

10. Renewal Notification. If we elect to renew this policy, we will let you know, in writing;

- a. Of our decision to renew this policy; and
- b. The amount of renewal premium payable to us.

This notice will be delivered or mailed to you at the mailing address shown in the Declarations at least 45 days before the expiration date of this policy. Proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

The following condition is added:

11. Our Right to Recover Payment.

- a. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment was made has a right to recover damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right. That person shall do:
 - (1) Whatever is necessary to enable us to exercise our rights; and
 - (2) Nothing after loss to prejudice them.
- b. If we make a payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment is made recovers damages from another, that person shall:
 - (1) Hold in trust for us the proceeds of the recovery; and
 - (2) Reimburse us to the extent of our payment.

12. Notice.

A company employee adjuster, independent adjuster, attorney, investigator, or other persons acting on our behalf that needs access to an “insured” or a claimant or to the insured’s property that is the subject of a claim must provide at least 48 hours’ notice to the “insured” or a claimant, public adjuster, or legal representative before scheduling a meeting with the claimant or an onsite inspection of the insured’s property.

The “insured” or a claimant may deny access to the property if notice has not been provided. The insured or a claimant may waive the 48 hour notice.

All other provisions of this policy apply.
